InfoCision celebrates 10 great years in Clarksburg community

Clarksburg, W.Va., October 15, 2009 – On Wednesday, October 14, InfoCision Management Corporation celebrated its 10th anniversary in the Clarksburg area with local leaders, employees and friends from the community.

The Harrison County Commissioners presented InfoCision with a proclamation commemorating the company's tenure as a quality employer and partner in the community. Lt. Col. Douglas Bunner, Commander of the U.S. Army Recruiting Battalion in Beckley, W.Va., also spoke offering congratulations to InfoCision and thanks for being a solid corporate citizen and as an employer of veterans and soldiers. This summer, InfoCision entered into a partnership with the Army's Partnerships for Youth Success (PaYS) program that provides priority hiring status to honorably discharged soldiers participating in the program.

In addition, InfoCision Senior Vice President of Corporate Affairs, Steve Brubaker recognized current InfoCision employees who are active or veterans of the United States armed forces and thanked them for their service to our country. Brubaker also recognized 11 employees who have been with the company since 1999, its first year in Clarksburg by presenting them with certificates of appreciation commemorating their years of hard work.

"We are very proud of our team here in Clarksburg for the outstanding success they have had over the last ten years," said Brubaker. "I really want to thank our employees, who have been the catalyst for our success here, and the community which has always been so gracious to us. Our Clarksburg location has always been a tremendous asset for InfoCision and we expect that to continue for years to come."
